

Welcome Aboard !!

Nlaka'pamux Health Services would like to welcome aboard its new team member, Kevin Sampson, Emergency Program Manager, he will provide services to the 12 Nlaka'pamux bands.

The Nlaka'pamux Bands that will be serviced:

Ashcroft	Coldwater	Cook's Ferry	Kanaka
Lower Nicola	Lytton	Nicomen	Nooaitch
Oregon Jack	Shackan	Siska	Skuppah

Kevin is from the Lytton First Nation who also sits on their council. His parents are Lynda and Roy Sampson, and he is the grandson of John & Mamie Sampson (Eustache) from Nesikep (30 mile) reserve. He is a father to 3 beautiful daughters, Alexandra, Kaia, and Keira, and son Joshua.

Kevin attended most of his elementary and secondary school years in Lytton, since then he has throughout the Lower Mainland, Fraser Valley, and Interior regions, where he has worked in an array of different industries. In 2011, Kevin graduated from the Thompson Rivers University with a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Biology, where he immediately gained employment with a local mining research and consultation firm in Kamloops, where he remained in the position of Laboratory Analyst for the last 12 years. This job taught him the value of teamwork, cooperation, and collaboration. Although, the work was interesting, it was never a passion of his. His education and passion were more geared towards environmental protection, health, and natural sciences.

In 2021, he was elected band councilor for the Lytton First Nation; his portfolio includes education, health, and emergency management. His specific education and work experience proved to be very valuable throughout these compounding disasters affecting the nation, he has indicated that it was an honor to be a part of the emergency response and recovery for the community. Out of these difficult experiences affecting the communities, he intends to utilize this hard-earned knowledge, to ensure the nation communities are more prepared for emergencies in the future.
